Bella, Douglas, Innes and Reuben from Auchterhouse Primary School gave a presentation on toilet twinning. The purpose being to ask the community council if the park toilets may be included in their twinning plans. This is a UNICEF initiative to help build clean toilets in poor areas in Africa and India. The school has already achieved a Bronze award and are going for their Silver in the Rights Respecting School scheme. The children will be planning fundraising events in the coming year. More information can be found at www.toilettwinning.org

The Council were impressed with the children and have agreed to allow them to include the park toilets.
